

may, at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, appeal from such judgment to the circuit court for Calvert county or St. Mary's county; but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond to the State of Maryland in double the amount of the fine imposed or value of the property condemned, with surety to be approved by said justice, and with condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to pay the parties entitled to the same the value of the property condemned or amount of fine imposed, and all costs in case such judgment shall be affirmed; and in all cases of appeal each party shall be entitled to trial by jury.

OUT-PENSIONS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 5, sec. 51.

106. The county commissioners may keep as many out-pensioners and allow them such pensions as they may think proper, not exceeding twenty dollars in any one case, except in cases of extreme poverty and distress and inability to labor, when they may in their discretion allow a pension of forty dollars.

RECORDS.

1886, ch. 116.

107. All deeds, wills, mortgages, papers or other instruments of writing which have been re-recorded, whether from the original or certified copies thereof, either in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Calvert county or in the office of the register of wills of said county, since the third day of March, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, or which may hereafter be re-recorded in said offices, the original records of which were destroyed by fire, shall have the same force and effect in law and equity that the originals had; provided, that all such deeds, mortgages, wills, papers and other instruments of writing which may be re-recorded, recording whereof was made necessary by law, shall be re-recorded in conformity and compliance with the laws of this State relating to conveyancing and recording, and shall be subject to the conditions and regulations thereof, the same as new deeds, mortgages, wills and other instruments of writing; provided, that the existence and recording of any deed, mortgage, will or other
